

their hearts forever, be approved by the world which marks arid honors you as the man of the people, and will be an eternal consolation to yourself. (To LaKayette, 1781). F. Y., «)-.)

LAND.—From the nature and puvpose of civil institutions, a.11 the lands within the limits which any particular society has circuiusrrihed around itself an- assumed by that socu'ly, and. subject tu their allotment only. This may bo done l»v themselves assembled collectively, or by their 1 .ej'.islalnre, tu whom they have delegated sovereign authnrity; and if they art* allotted in either of these ways, each individual of the society inu-y appropriate to himself Mich land* a% he tinds vacant, and occupancy will ^ive him title. (Knmi "A Stmunary View," 177,4.. F, I."..H50 t

I,AXi». -They will settle the lands in spite of evri'yU»cly. 1 am at the .same time clear that they should be appn »j»rialc»d in siuull tptautities. It is said that worlhv ftuvii'jners uill etitio in fjfreat uuiubers and they tnti-jit tu pa\ fnr the liberty we sluill. have pn>videil f«»r them. Tine, |.nt u«aUe them pay in '.etlurs. A foreigner who btmt's a srtilcr f»»r every too or ,M»> acres t>f land to he i'.rauted him pays a better price than if hr ha«l put into the public treasury live %bt!!in^s nr |$ve pounds, t'l'o I'Cd-mund Penilletuii, t7;-t». !•'. II., St.)

l,AN'i». • The earth is |.;iven a CMj!unt»ti ,t»ck fnr man to labor ami live on, If f»r the ciieonrattemem «<f industry we allmv it to bt⁴ appropriated, we um-.l take care that nther employment l>e provided to those e!e!udt*d from the appropriation. If we <lo not, the fundamental ri^ht t»« labor the earth returns to ttic unemployed. It is t«»o soon \rt in otr country to say that every man who cannot fmd employment but \\ho can iimi smculti-vated land shall be as liberty t<» cultivate it, paying a wholesale rent. I»ut it is not too sot»n to provide by every means that as fe\v as pn^sldr shall be \\ ithmit a iittU* of land, 'Hie small laud holders are the 1110-4 precious part of a State. (To Hev. Jaim-s Madison, 170,5. I¹. \ 'll., 3»».)

I«\Nt;tr;t;Ks,—In my letter «»f the tSth, t omitted to say anything¹ of the langnn^es as part of our proposed university. It was not that I tlnrk, as some do, that they arc useless. I rim